-- Time Warner Cable To Also Offer Semifinals, Final On Demand In Texas -

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (June 22, 2010) -- Basketball fans around the world will be able to watch the entire 2010 FIBA Americas Championship for Men live online at fibaamericas.com; while locally Time Warner Cable is offering the semifinal and final games, played June 29 and 30, to its Texas customers on Demand channels 634 and 988 starting on July 6. Fans will have the chance to watch not only the USA's top 18 and under players, coached by the University of Oklahoma's Jeff Capel, but the top young talent from the Americas zone will also be on display live online.

FIBA Americas has announced that it will stream live on the Internet all 20 games in the June 26-30 tournament that will be played at Bill Greehey Arena on the campus of St. Mary's University. Each day's games will tip-off at 1:00 p.m. (all times CDT), followed by games at 3:00 p.m., 5:00 p.m. and the final game of the day is set to begin at 7:00 p.m. FIBA Americas will also make available the play-by-play statistics for each game live online at fibaamericas.com.

"USA Basketball is excited that its fans across the country will be able to follow the USA U18 National Team live online as it attempts to capture gold at the 2010 FIBA Americas U18 Championship," said USA Basketball Executive Director/CEO Jim Tooley. "We're also pleased that Time Warner Cable will be making the semifinals and finals available to its customers in Texas on their different on Demand channels. This team is full of talented athletes and USA fans will enjoy watching them at this tournament."

Time Warner Cable's customers in Texas will be able to watch the replays of all the semifinal and final games on Demand channel 988 in San Antonio, New Braunfels and Seguin; on Demand channel 200 in Waco, Killeen and Temple; on Demand Channel 1400 in Austin and San Marcos; and on Demand Channel 634 in the Dallas and Arlington areas starting July 6. Customers should check their local listings for dates and times of replays in their areas.
